

SOLANO/NAPA COUNTIES LABOR-MANAGEMENT COOPERATION COMMITTEE

Northern California Chapter, NECA
IBEW, Local Union 180

EVENT ALERT – REGISTER NOW!

The Solano/Napa Counties LMCC is sponsoring a trip to the NECA/IBEW Labor Relations “Town Hall Meeting” to be held during the NECA Convention & Trade Show in San Francisco.

Join us for a unique opportunity to hear directly from NECA and IBEW leaders – IBEW President Ed Hill, NECA CEO John Grau, and NECA Vice President of Labor Relations Geary Higgins. Mark Breslin, known for his unique style and presentations on labor-management relations will serve as the moderator. Then, spend the afternoon on the trade show floor.

All area electricians, contractors and shop employees are encouraged to attend!

- WHEN: Sunday, October 7, 2007, Town Hall Meeting: 10 AM until 11:30 AM; Trade Show: 11:30 AM until 3 PM
- WHERE: Moscone Convention Center, San Francisco
- COST: FREE, including transportation by bus from the Local 180 Hall. The bus will board at 8 AM, returning at approximately 4 PM.
- WHAT: The Town Hall Meeting will address concerns and issues shaping the electrical construction labor market today, and will allow for open discussion with the speakers.

Afterward, stay for the NECA Tradeshow starting at 11:30 AM until 3 PM. The NECA Show is the premier EXPO for the electrical, power, and cabling industry. At the NECA Show, electrical professionals can view the latest innovations in the tools, system controls, software, and vehicles, plus learn about the business services they rely on. More than 200 vendors will come together to put on an amazing exposition just for you. For more information visit www.necaconvention.org/tradeshow.
